GIM Faculty Awards

GIM Faculty Awards were given at the Division Meeting on October 1, 2014.

Excellence in Research
Michael Fiore, MD, MPH, MBA, Professor
James Sosman, MD, Professor

Excellence in Clinical Teaching
James Giesen, MD, Clinical Professor

Excellence in Clinical Care
Sharon Haase, MD, FACP, Clinical Professor

Advanced Practice Clinical Excellence
Sarah Holum, NP, Nurse Practitioner
William Petersen, PA, Physician Assistant

Excellence in Professionalism
Ann Schmidt, MD, Clinical Professor

Excellence in Leadership
Elizabeth Trowbridge, MD, Clinical Associate Professor

Awards

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD has been recognized as an Outstanding Woman of Color for 2014-2015. She is one of eight women recognized. A campus-wide reception was held in their honor on October 1, 2014 at the Pyle Center. The Outstanding Women of Color Awards were created in 2007 to recognize students, faculty and staff for their service to the community in one or more of the following areas: social justice; advocacy for disadvantaged and/or marginalized populations; scholarly research, writing, speaking and/or teaching about race, ethnicity and indigeneity in American society; and community building to create an inclusive and respectful environment on or off campus.

Gail Gaustad, NP was nominated for Excellence in Clinical Practice at the 2014 UW Health Advanced Practice Provider Recognition event on November 5, 2014, Monona Terrace, Madison, WI.

James Giesen, MD was recognized during a reception October 20, 2014 at UW Hospital as a UW Health 2014 Community Service Honor Roll Nominee for demonstrating an “exceptional commitment to a wide range of non-profit organizations that promote community health.” Three UW Health employees received awards, and Dr. Giesen was one of five honor roll nominees.

Lisa Grant, DO has been accepted as a new Fellow at the University of Arizona’s Center for Integrative Medicine. She will begin the 2-year distance learning program in August 2015 and continue in her current position at UW Health West Towne. This fellowship, created by Dr. Andrew Weil, MD in 2000, has achieved international recognition as the leading integrative medical education program.

Sharon Haase, MD has been awarded Mastership in the ACP. ACP Bylaws state that Masters shall be Fellows who have been selected because of “personal character, positions of honor, contributions toward furthering the purposes of the ACP, eminence in practice or in medical research, or other attainments in science or in the art of medicine.”
Awards

Norman Jensen, MD is one of a team of four national faculty leading patient experience improvement courses for small groups of 240 staff physicians, NPs and PAs of the Franciscan Health System, Tacoma, WA on behalf of the American Academy on Communication in Healthcare. Norm has served this organization as president, board member and chair, and as a mentor of fellows and visiting faculty member. This work extends through 2015.

Kristen Panther, NP was nominated for Excellence in Clinical Practice at the 2014 UW Health Advanced Practice Provider Recognition event on November 5, 2014, Monona Terrace, Madison, WI.

Elaine Rosenblatt, NP was nominated for Excellence in Clinical Practice at the 2014 UW Health Advanced Practice Provider Recognition event on November 5, 2014, Monona Terrace, Madison, WI.

Thomas Shiffler, MD received the Schilling Teaching Award at the DOM Faculty Dinner on October 2, 2014.

Andrea Schnell, MD received the Larry Crocker, M.D. Generalism Award for Outstanding Generalist Resident given to a resident who demonstrates an outstanding commitment to the practice of general internal medicine.

Johanna Streyle, MD received the General Internal Medicine Outstanding Medical Student Award given to a graduating senior who exhibits leadership qualities and an outstanding commitment to the principles of general internal medicine.

Laura Zakowski, MD received an Award for Outstanding Clinical Teaching, presented by the UW SMPH Class of 2014.

Top Docs 2014

Joan Addington-White, MD and Jeremy Smith, MD were named to Madison Magazine’s Top Docs 2014 in Internal Medicine. Elaine Rosenblatt, NP was named to Madison Magazine’s Top Docs 2014 in Travel Medicine. Elaine has made this list six times and is the only nurse practitioner ever listed.

Grants

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD is the Co-PI on a new NIH R01 grant funded as a competitive renewal. “What Matters in Mentoring? Effect of Mentor Cultural Awareness on Mentee Outcomes” with Christine Pfund, PhD., Co-PI. National Institute of General Medical Sciences. 9/15/10-8/31/18. $1.4 million.

Grants cont’d

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD is a UW Site Co-Investigator on “National Research Mentoring Network (NRMN) for a Diverse Biomedical Workforce” part of a broader Diversity Program Consortium. On October 22nd, the NIH announced the award of the $2.2 million grant to UW-Madison to serve as the national hub for research mentor and mentee training within the NRMN. The total nationwide award to develop and support NRMN is $19 million for five years. Christine Pfund, PhD is the UW Site PI and the Director of the NRMN Mentor Training Core. Christine Sorkness, PharmD and Janet Branchaw, PhD are also UW Site Co-Investigators. 9/26/14-6/30/19.

Shobhina Chheda, MD, MPH and Tosha Wetterneck, MD, MS along with Roberta Rusch received a $50,000 UW Education Innovations grant. The team previously developed a Patient Safety Curriculum for 3rd and 4th year medical students. This grant will allow the team to engage with faculty from the Schools of Nursing, Pharmacy and Engineering, the Master of Public Health program and the Division of Information Technology to develop an interprofessional online case-based curriculum to allow students from various health professions to learn about various perspectives and professions while developing a deeper understanding of key areas of patient safety.

Elizabeth Jacobs, MD, MAPP is the PI on a $2.1 million grant for the Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute (PCORI) to study “The Effectiveness of Peer-to-Peer Community Support to Promote Aging in Place.” KyungMann Kim, PhD and Jane Mahoney, MD are Co-PIs. 9/1/14-8/31/17.

Tosha Wetterneck, MD, MS is the PI on a five-year, $2.5 million R01 grant “Understanding Primary Care Teamwork in Context: Implications for HIT Design.” The project aims to: 1) identify the cognitive work requirements of primary care clinicians and teams, and 2) develop and test specific EHR interface design requirements. This is a collaboration among SMPH Department of Medicine and Family Medicine, the Wisconsin Research and Education Network, the School of Nursing and the Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering in the College of Engineering. AHRQ. 9/30/2014-9/29/2019.
Intl/National Presentations

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD presented "Diversity 4.0: Understanding ‘The Invisible’ in Research Training," with Richard McGee, PhD, Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, at the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) Professional Development Meeting of the GRAND, GREAT Group and Postdoctorate Leaders Section, Fort Worth, TX, September 19, 2014.

Heather Huang, MD presented “Metabolic Disorders in Severe Mental Illness” on October 10, 2014 at the Association of Medicine and Psychiatry Annual Conference, Chicago, IL.

Tosha Wetterneck, MD presented “Improving Primary Care through I-PrACTISE” at the Human Factors and Ergonomics Society Annual Meeting on October 29, 2014 in Chicago, IL. Tosha also led a panel discussion entitled “Improving Quality and Safety through Human Factors Collaborations with Healthcare: The System Engineering Initiative for Patient Safety” on October 30, 2014.

Regional/Local Presentations

Michael Fiore, MD, MPH, MBA was interviewed on “Adult Smoking Rate in Wisconsin hits all-time low” for the WI Radio Network on December 11, 2014.

Lisa Grant, DO presented “Mindful Movement for Stress Management” at the 2014 Quality & Safety Week, UW Health, October 16, 2014. Dr. Grant gave an oral presentation as well as a poster presentation.

Juanita Halls, MD presented “Routine Bimanual Pelvic Exam: Pros & Cons” at UW Women’s Health Conference on November 7, 2014 in Madison, WI. This included a presentation of new ACP recommendations against using a screening pelvic exam in asymptomatic women.
Regional/Local Presentations cont’d

Heather Huang, MD presented “Adult ADHD” at Hot Topics in Internal Medicine 2014 in Middleton, WI on May 1, 2014.

Smith J. Communication of Teaching Goals. Indiana University, Bloomington, IN, July 10, 2014.

Smith J. A systematic Analysis of Effective Teaching. Weiss Hospital, Chicago, IL, August 26, 2014.

Smith J. Studies that will change your practice 2012-2014, Sauk Prairie Hospital, Prairie du Sac, WI, September 30, 2014.

Smith J. From Imposter to Master Educator: Teaching in the DOM. Department of Medicine Faculty Orientation, October 2, 2014.

James Sosman, MD participated in a panel discussion after the viewing of the film “Positive Youth” for World AIDS Day at the Goodman Community Center, Madison, WI on December 1, 2014.

Richard Welnick, MD, Sandra Kamnetz, MD, Lori Hauschild, RN, MHA and Betsy Trowbridge, MD presented “Variations in Primary Care” at UW Health Quality and Safety Week 2014 on October 15, 2014 at the UW Hospital, Madison, WI.

Wetterneck TB. A Randomized controlled trial of a human factors designed elderly pre-visit planning intervention in primary care. DOM Research Day, UW SMPH, May 24, 2014, Madison, WI.

Publications

Publications

Publications

Book Chapter

Workshops/Courses

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD and Christine Pfund, PhD presented “Improving the Effectiveness of Mentors” a workshop at Morehouse School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA on September 8, 2014.

Angela Byars-Winston, PhD and Christine Pfund, PhD presented “Improving the Effectiveness of Mentors” a workshop at Morehouse School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA on September 8, 2014.

Shobhina Chheda, MD presented “Redesigning the Optimal Ambulatory Experience for Leaders,” a workshop at the National Meeting of Academic Internal Medicine Week, Washington, DC, September 13, 2014.

Mariah Quinn, MD and Amy Smith, MS conducted a workshop “Exploring relationship and professional identity in the Art Museum: Polychromatic learning to support humanistic medical care” at the 2014 American Academy on Communication in Healthcare (AACH) Research and Teaching Forum, Orlando, FL, October 18, 2014.

Jeremy Smith, MD was a Conference Co-Leader at the Indiana University Housestaff Retreat, a 2-day Conference to improve teaching skills, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN, July 10-11, 2014.

Betsy Trowbridge, MD and Lisa Bindl, MBA co-presented a workshop entitled “Beyond RVUs: Changing Your Primary Care Compensation Plan From Volume to Value” at the National Meeting of Academic Internal Medicine Week, Washington, DC on September 13, 2014.

Zakowski LJ, Ahrens SA, Chheda SG, Green E. The Oral Presentation Entrustable Professional Activity: It’s about More Than Communication” at the National Meeting of Academic Internal Medicine Week, Washington, DC, September 12, 2014.

Service

Katie Miller, MD volunteers as the Team Physician for the East High School football team. She attends their games and provides medical coverage for acute injuries and other medical conditions that arise, such as concussions.

Student Tribute to a Teacher:

In a recent faculty evaluation, a student wrote: “Dr. Laurel Romer’s enthusiasm for medicine was wonderful. She created an environment where we felt safe to practice our skills at presentation and at compiling a differential diagnosis. I looked forward to going to our preceptor group.”